The favorite promenade of Fuente Castellana is chosen for the scene of the tragic drama. The scaffold rises beside the fashionable drive, almost opposite to the bull-ring. Your Spaniard is as eager for one show as for the other. Still, with all the callousness of that stern nation to deeds of bloodshed, it could hardly be proof against the horrors that have been perpetrated in the country for the last two months; and the foreign press, especially the French, has raised a cry of execration that has been but too successfully smothered in the Peninsula itself. If we may believe only one-tenth what is written, we are at no loss to know the means by which tranquillity has been re-established. doing. Emerson is reading the proof sheets of his new volumes of poems to be published this autumn by Ticknor & Fields. The title of the new book is May Day and Other Pieces. Two long poems lead off the volume. Holmes is busy over his romance, the first in-stalment of which will appear in the January Atlantic Monthly.

Longfellow has finished his translation of the Dirine Comedy, and is still preparing the notes and illustrations. The whole work will appear in a few months, probably. His Flower de Luce is in the bindery. Lowell has at last completed the Second Series of Biglow Papers, and having added a most piquant introduction of some hundred pages to the volume, he is now writing a story in verse for the Atlantic Monthly. Mrs. Stowe and Mrs. M. L. Child are both writing novels for the press of Ticknor & Fields. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe is deep in Fate, Free

Will and Foreknowledge, probably for the benefit of the Christian Examiner or her new magazine. Whittier is at home in Amesbury, and we hope engaged on his promised new volume of twenty-five thousand. The Passages from Hawthorn's Note Books

Agassiz, the great professor, is rapidly putting in shape for the press his Travels in Brazil. Edmund Quincy is at his country house in Dedham, writing the life of his father, Josiah Quiney.

Garrison, still far from being in robust health, works away daily at his "History of the Anti-Slavery movement in America.' The author of "Herman" (Miss Palfrey) is engaged on a new story. Henry James is writing a new book, said to JUNEAR.

Mr. Parton is getting out new editions of his biographical works, and preparing new volumes for his Boston publishers. Dr. Parsons is progressing with his translation of Dante's " Inferno," and Mr. George Ticknor is said to be occupied in writing a new memoir, of whom it is not stated. AGREEMENT BLANKS.
